Economic Message Lists Program To Lick Recession

NAVY MISSILE PLANS STILL BEING PROBED

Washington (AP)—The Senate preparedness subcommittee looks into the adequacy of the Navy's submarine and missile programs today as it opens the final week of its current phase of hearings.

Adm. Arleigh A. Burke, chief of naval operations, and Rear Adm. W. F. Raborn, who is supervising development of the Navy's Polaris missile, were among witnesses called for closed-door testimony.

While Congress members argued variously that more money, more clearly defined authority and more creative thinking are needed to spur United States defenses against Russian scientific gains, the weekend brought these developments:

1. Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) said Senate Democrats are considering a two billion dollar package proposal to increase appropriations for long-range jet bombers, both intermediate and medium range ballistic missiles, and missile-firing submarines.

2. Sens. Humphrey (D-Minn.) and McClellan (D-Ark.) prepared a bill to establish a cabinet-level department of science and technology to include the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC), National Science Foundation, Bureau of Standards, Patent Office, and other agencies.

3. Pending establishment of its Advanced Research Projects Agency (ARPA), the Defense Department ordered its missiles director, William Holaday, to coordinate the development of devices to detect and destroy enemy missiles.

Grand Jury Inquiry Of Klan Uprising Planned by Sheriff

Lumberton, N. C. (AP)—Sheriff Malcolm McLeod says he will ask a grand jury today to indict a Ku Klux Klan leader who had his rally shot out from under him by whooping Indians.

The Robeson County law officer said he wanted charges of inciting to riot brought against the Rev. James Cole of Marion, S. C., self-styled KKK leader of groups in both Carolinas.

Cole, claiming he was denied his rights under the law because he is a member of the white race, said he planned legal action against the sheriff, also a white man.

But later, Cole said the Klan should turn the other cheek as far as further action may be considered.

"Being Christian is our job and we should turn the other cheek even when offended," he said.

Cole's rally near here Saturday night ended with Klansmen and spectators scrambling for safety as whooping Indians emptied rifles, shotguns and pistols into the meeting.

The Indians were outraged by reports the Klan intended to burn them against race mixing and by the fact that two KKK crosses were burned near Indian homes during the preceding week.

Although Indians poured bullets for 10 minutes into a field where people milled in pitch darkness, only four men were wounded—none seriously.

Many Saddened by Passing of Popular North Warren Citizen

Friends throughout this entire area were saddened over the weekend by the news that Boyd Martin Sanden, aged 52 and well known resident of 8 Lansing street, North Warren, had died unexpectedly at 3:50 a. m. Saturday in Warren General Hospital.

The popular North Warren man was born in that community November 11, 1905, a son of the late Martin and Bertha Sanden, and had lived there practically all his life. Following preliminary schooling, he attended and was graduated from Warren High School with the class of 1925.

He was associated with his father and brother in the grocery business at North Warren for a number of years, and had been employed in the personnel department.

Speculation Among Demos As To Timing of Candidates For Governor and U. S. Senate

Harrisburg (AP)—The timing of Gov. Leader's announcement that he would be a Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate was reported today to be tentatively fixed for mid-March.

An important Democratic source, who asked not to be identified, said it would likely tie in with a companion declaration by Mayor Richard Dilworth of Philadelphia for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

It was emphasized, however, that the plan was subject to change on the basis of two possible developments:

1. Whether Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman, an avowed Democratic candidate for governor, arranges for a senatorial running-mate. So far he is going it alone.

2. Whether Dilworth makes a decision that he would not enter the race. As it now stands, his close friends say he is expected to announce at the very last minute.

The first day to circulate nomination petitions is Feb. 25. The deadline for filing is March 17. Under Philadelphia's city charter, Dilworth must resign as mayor the minute he becomes an active candidate. Presumably, that means when he files nomination petitions.

A three-way fight, at least, appeared to be shaping up for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Dr. William D. McClelland, Allegheny County coroner, said he was considering announcing his candidacy but said before he did that "there are certain people I must see and things I must consider."

The Republican picture is clouded with uncertainty.

The GOP senatorial nomination—to fill a vacancy that will be created by the retirement of Republican Edward Martin—is the open objective of two congressmen and two former state senators.

The congressmen are James F. Van Zandt, Altoona, and Hugh Scott, Philadelphia; the ex-state senators, Weldon B. Heyburn, Concordville, Delaware County, and T. Nevell Wood, Harvey's Lake, Luzerne County.

The field of Republicans openly or privately seeking the gubernatorial nomination is even more crowded.

WESTMORELAND ELECTION

Greensburg (AP)—Both the Republican and Democratic candidates for the 21st Pennsylvania Congressional District forecast victories in Westmoreland County's special election tomorrow. Vying for the seat vacated by the death last fall of Rep. Augustine Kelley, Greensburg Democrat, are State Sen. John Dent, a Democrat, and Herbert O. Morrison, a Republican. Dent, 49, of Jeannette, has predicted an easy victory.

Bosses' Night Speaker Making Trip by Plane

Harold E. Stassen, disarmament advisor to President Eisenhower, is scheduled to arrive in Warren late tomorrow afternoon for his scheduled talk to the Junior Chamber of Commerce Bosses Night Dinner.

A JC delegation will pick up Stassen at Jamestown Airport at 4:38 p. m. tomorrow, weather permitting. Otherwise, the speaker will be picked up in Pittsburgh.

After his arrival, a reception for the controversial political figure will be held in the American Legion by JCs and their bosses. Mr. Stassen will leave Warren shortly after his talk.

Weather Plane With Ten Men Aboard Is Missing

Guam (AP)—SOS signals caused the Air Force to widen the search area to 50,000 square miles today in a hunt for a B-50 weather plane that vanished while tracking a typhoon.

The signals were monitored yesterday from the area 600 miles west of Guam where the plane with 10 crewmen aboard disappeared Tuesday. The faint signals were heard in Guam, Hawaii, Anchorage and Adak.

The Air Force was having trouble pin pointing the signals, believed from an emergency hand operated radio set, because of radio broadcasts on 8200-8500 kilocycle bands. It asked that radio operators not broadcast on those bands.

Promotion Is Given Sylvania Official Here

New York—The election of Marion E. Pettegrew above, Warren, Pa., as a senior vice president of Sylvania Electric Products Inc., was announced today by Dan G. Mitchell, Chairman-President of the Company. Mr. Pettegrew has been a vice president since 1956. Mr. Pettegrew has responsibility for Sylvania's Radio and Television Division which has headquarters in Batavia, N. Y., as well as the company's Parts Division in Warren, Pa., and its Chemical and Metallurgy Division in Toxwanda, Pa. Mr. Pettegrew was one of eight vice presidents elected to the newly-created position of Senior Vice President in a move to increase emphasis on Sylvania's long-established policy of decentralization of managerial authority and accountability.

Noted Criminologist From Philippines To Help Mrs. Dean

Franklin, (AP)—A noted criminologist was en route here today from the Philippine Islands as a Venango County grand jury prepared to consider an indictment charging a 21-year-old Filipino mother with the murder of her American husband.

Atty. Estanislao Fernandez left by plane over the weekend to lead the defense of Mrs. Lydia Dean, who should be indicted for the slaying last Dec. 7 of Ronald Dean, 29, an Air Force technical sergeant.

If the grand jury returns a true bill, Mrs. Dean, the mother of a 3-year-old daughter, is expected to stand trial next week. Fernandez planned to help defend her, if necessary.

Mrs. Dean has been quoted as the county jail here since a few hours after her husband was shot to death in the home of his parents near Pleasantville. Her mother, Mrs. Eugenia Dean, flew from the Philippines several weeks ago to be at her daughter's side.

Mrs. Dean has been quoted as saying her husband wanted to end their four-year marriage to wed a girl he met during a recent 18-month tour of duty in England.

President To Kick Off GOP Drive Tonight

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower starts his sixth year in office today—and kicks off a new Republican drive for control of Congress.

The 67-year-old President arranged formal observance of the anniversary this evening at a $100-a-plate GOP dinner in Chicago where he will be guest of honor and make a nationwide television radio political address (NBC), as the party's chief.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower scheduled an afternoon flight aboard his private plane, Columbine III.

In Chicago, the President and the First Lady will stay overnight at the Stockyard Inn near the huge International Amphitheater where tonight's dinner is being held—and where Eisenhower was nominated for a first term in July 1952.

They plan to fly back to Washington tomorrow.

Forty-four Republican dinners for an estimated 40,000 of the GOP faithful are being held tonight in 27 states and the District of Columbia. In addition to Eisenhower, speakers at the $10 to $100-a-plate affairs from coast to coast include Vice President Nixon, many other top administration officials and Republican congressional leaders.

Nixon, speaking from the New York dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, will introduce Eisenhower. The President will talk for about 10 minutes on the half hour TV-radio program being beamed to the party dinners around the country as well as to the public generally.

The party effort from the President on down is geared to raising funds for the GOP campaign to wrest control of Congress from the Democrats in the November elections.

Results of Election in Guatemala Still Undecided

Guatemala, (AP)—Candidates of the right and left were leading today in first returns from the presidential election in this one-time Communist beachhead of the Western hemisphere. But the outcome of yesterday's voting was not expected to be known until late this week.

Provisional President Guillermo Flores Avandano said no matter who won, the danger of Communist influence in Guatemala probably is less than in the United States.

Unofficial returns from 94 of Guatemala City's 183 polling places gave 18,393 votes to Gen. Miguel Ydigoras Fuentes, 62-year-old veteran right-wing aspirant, and 13,811 to Mario Mendez Montenegro, 47, of the leftist Revolutionary Party.

Lima, Peru (AP)—Landslides, earthquakes and snow have left a trail of death, destruction or discomfort in parts of Latin America.

Peru was hardest hit. Reports, some of them delayed, said at least 128 persons perished in two landslides and recurrent quakes. Earth shocks also claimed 12 lives in Ecuador and spread panic in northern Chile.

Some 300 persons were reported trapped near Mexico City following one of the worst snowfalls in Mexican history.

Warning Is Sounded Blue Law To Be Enforced in Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh (AP)—Proprietors of wholesale, retail and discount establishments in the city were under official notice today that a 1794 state law banning Sunday sales still is on the books.

Police visited scores of business houses yesterday, advised the owners of the existence of the statute and urged them to close. There were no arrests.

Safety Director Louis Rosenberg explained that the police visits were only warnings.

"Nobody will be prosecuted until we have had a chance to examine all the circumstances and evaluate them. We are going to have to establish a police department policy on the matter but we are not going to act hastily. We are not going to do anything just to harass people."

Several merchants heeded the advice, but many kept their doors open. Grocery, meat and drug stores and restaurants were not visited by the officers.

Rosenberg said that despite the police activity, prosecutions, if any, will be made judiciously. Several communities in Allegheny and Butler counties have in recent weeks enforced the so-called blue laws banning Sunday sales. Many persons have been arrested and fined. Appeals are planned by several.

Pittsburgh merchants so far have escaped prosecution under the law. Last week city police prevented a constable from nearby Natrona from serving warrants on local businessmen.

Media, (AP)—Officials of Springfield Twp., Delaware County, yesterday enforced Pennsylvania's 164 year old Blue Laws prohibiting Sunday sales.

Five of six stores previously warned against doing business on Sunday were closed when police checked them. Police Chief Lester Forrester said the stores closed were three drug stores and two hardware firms.

42-POINT PLAN FOR HOME FRONT LEGISLATION MAPPED TO MEET SOVIET CHALLENGE

Washington (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the country can lick the recession this year, pay in full the cost of meeting Russia's new challenge, and go forward to "real economic growth without inflation."

His economic report, third and last of the annual White House messages to Congress, carried a 42-point program of home-front legislation. Most requests were familiar, but Eisenhower said they are now "urgent."

He pledged that his policies will be shaped to foster the earliest possible business recovery. But he gave no hint that the administration is considering any such strong medicine as tax cuts, public works or deliberate deficits, and avoided even the words "recession" or "depression."

Eisenhower disclosed that the slump began sooner and hit harder than officials had expected. In the past three months national production dropped six billion dollars, or 1 1/2 per cent, he said, from the record rate of 439 billion a year achieved in the previous quarter.

And he underscored this warning: if "unwarranted" wage and price increases emerge from this spring's bargaining, the prospective recovery could be delayed.

The business-stimulating effect of enlarged defense spending already is being felt, Eisenhower reported, and the October reversal of the government's anti-inflation policy has noticeably liberalized credit and cut the costs of borrowing.

Other factors favoring a 1958 upturn are visible, he said, including:

Strong, sustained consumer demand; "very little" decline in incomes or total buying power; rising outlays by state and local governments; increased private spending on research and development; and strong business confidence, attested by the long-range programs of corporations for expansion and construction.

Summing up, Eisenhower predicted:

"As we look ahead in 1958, there are grounds for expecting that the decline in business activity need not be prolonged and that economic growth can be resumed without interruption."

Other official sources, more explicit than the president, said the downturn is expected to continue until a turnabout point is reached in the April-June quarter, or the July-September period.

The message repeated with emphasis the administration's requests for a higher limit on the federal debt, a one-year extension or present corporation and excise tax rates, the farm program set to the Capitol last week, and the new plan to aid science education.

The President urged enactment of Taft-Hartley law amendments including a tightening of restraints on secondary boycotts and picketing—subject of a special message due later this week—and adoption of previously announced proposals to further loosen housing credit.

Other proposals—most of which were made in the earlier State of the Union and Budget messages—would:

Ease the tax laws in several minor ways to benefit small business. But any tax concessions involving substantial loss of revenue must wait until a general tax cut is possible, Eisenhower said.

Make the Small Business Administration a permanent agency and enlarge its authorization to make business and disaster loans.

Extend the 51-an-hour minimum wage to some additional groups of workers, as provided in a pending measure.

Set up federal machinery to help

Well Known Tidioute Business Man Dies Suddenly Early Today

John Parker Sage, long active in Tidioute civic affairs and owner of the funeral establishment which bore his name, was found dead in his home, 3 Elm street, at 12:45 a. m. today. He was 78 years of age.

Mr. Sage has been in declining health for some time.

Two weeks ago he fell and broke his leg and had been bedridden since, after being hospitalized in Warren for several days.

Mr. Sage was born in Tidioute Feb. 25, 1879, the son of Sarah Cole and John Parker Sage.

His early schooling was in the State of Indiana and he returned to this section to attend high school at Franklin.

In 1905, Mr. Sage opened the Sage Undertaking Parlor and Furniture Store in Tidioute. The same

Heavy Snow Storm Is Reported To Be Blowing Eastward

Denver (AP)—Heavy, widespread snow blew eastward today after coating the parched Great Plains with life-giving moisture for crops and livestock.

La Junta, in the heart of south-eastern Colorado's farmlands, received more than seven inches. The grazing lands of eastern New Mexico, western Texas and the Oklahoma Panhandle were blanketed with more than three inches.

The snowfall over croplands of western Kansas, eastern and southern Nebraska, northwestern Iowa and southern Minnesota was nearly as heavy.

Daytime temperatures in the snowy area were generally in the 20s.

Highways, although icy and snow-covered, were open for travel. Plane, bus and train traffic was generally normal.

Agricultural leaders said the storm would give winter wheat needed moisture and provide nourishment for withered plains grass.

In its eastward movement, the storm stretched up to North Dakota and through Iowa into the Great Lakes region.

Rain and snow associated with the huge storm were expected to strike a vast area. Rain was in store for the Gulf States northward into the Ohio Valley. And a mixture of rain, sleet or snow was forecast for the lower Great Lakes.

The chill winds accounted for temperatures in the teens and low 20s as far south as northern Virginia.

Two Plead Innocent In Sale of $25,000 Calcium Chloride

Harrisburg (AP)—Two men pleaded innocent today to charges of false pretense in the sale of $25,000 of calcium chloride to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

Selection of a jury was started immediately in Dauphin County Court for the trial of the two, Palmer Evans, Coaldale, and Edward B. McGinley, Nesquehoning, on the charge.

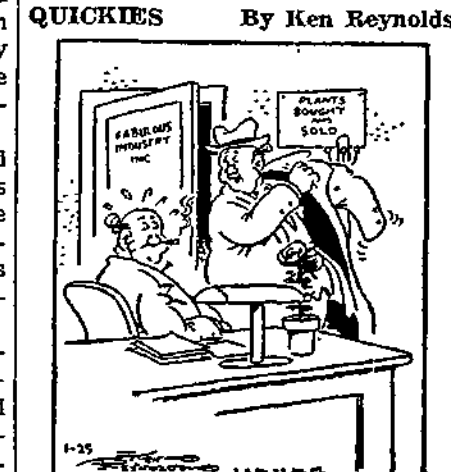

They were officers of the B. and W. Trading Corp., which has a contract to sell the dust-laying chemical to the toll road agency.

Much of the day was expected to be taken up by the selection of the jury.

Barber Shop Chorus Dedicates Annual "Night of Harmony" to Memory of Deceased Member

Plummer Collins, president of Warren Chapter, SPEESQA, welcomed a full house at Beauty Auditorium Saturday evening to open the Barber Shoppers 10th Annual Night of Harmony. He spoke briefly but solemnly as the entire performance was dedicated to the memory of a barber who had worked so faithfully through the years and was a "true barbershopper." Mr. Sanden had died unexpectedly early that morning.

LeRoy Schneck was master of ceremonies and announced that Warren's Chorus would go to Columbus, Ohio this year. Thanks were extended to the Style Shop and Brown's Boot Shop for their cooperation in outfitting the Barber Shoppers with attractive new ensembles of white jackets with Wallace plaid trim, bow ties, cummerbunds, and black slacks, except for the director, who wears all white.

The stage was set with a "box" in the center, decorated with barber poles on either side, creating an appropriate frame for each quartet.

The program consisted of:

Warren Chapter Chorus: "We're From Warren, Pennsylvania," "Sugar Cane Jubilee," "Medley of Long Ago Songs," "Mandy Lee," "The SPEES Squires," Warren-Clyde Baker, lead; Jay Kimmel, tenor; Steve Cluckshank, bass; Bill Cornwall, baritone; "Jitterbug Mary" and "In the Still of the Night."

"The Tunes of Warren—First time to appear: Virg. Albaugh, lead; Ad. Sholes, tenor; Mac Sears, bass; John Swick, baritone; "That Old Quaiter" and "Lonesome That's All."

"The Dominos": Warren—Bob, Dietsch, lead; Howard Johnson, tenor; Jim Cruckshank, bass.

Carl Johnson, baritone: "Blue Shadows" and "Great Smoky Mountains." "The Babbling Brooks"—1957-1958 Jonny Applesed District Champs, also 1957 International Finalists, East Liverpool, Ohio, a family group—Earl Brook, lead; Bob Brook, tenor; Bill Brook, bass; Chuck Brook, baritone; "Dark Town Struttin' Ball" and "Just Like a Butterfly."

"The Confederates"—1956-1957 International Champions, Memphis, Tenn.—Dave LaBonte, lead; George Evans, tenor; Wally Singleton, bass; Bill Bubby, baritone; "Save Your Confederate Money," "The South Shall Rise Again," "Improving their harmony between the North and South as two of their quartet are from the North" and "Twelfth St. Rag."

Warren Chapter Chorus—Earl Ericson asked Bob Dietsch to direct for this number so he could join the singing. "My Cutie Due at Two to Two Tonight," "My Indiana," "See You Some Tuesday." Mr. Ericson announced the Chorus would sing a favorite of Bob's, "Son of a Gun"—Battle Hymn of the Republic.

At this point it was announced that the quartets would sing encores if the applause indicated the desire to be heard again.

"The Jamestown Rolling Tones"—1957-58 Seneca Lands District Champions, Jamestown, N. Y.—John Berenger, lead; Wally Carlson, tenor; Bob Hitchcock, bass; Jarvis Finnemore, baritone; "Smile, Dear Ya, Smile," "It Looks Like Rain in Cherry Blossom Lane," "Side by Side," "A Face in the Firelight" (written by Sherry Brown of Warren) and "Craving in My Model T" (ending up with a loud backfire).

"Babbling Brooks"—"Sitting on Top of the World," "Stay in Your Own Backyard," "Sweet Adeline," "The Banjo's Back in Town" and "When I Take My Sugar To Tea." Confederates—"Take Me to the Street Parade," "Barbershop Ballad" (the latter was made in Decade album), "Summertime," "Mile," "Quartet From Rigoletti," and "Just in Case You Change Your Mind."

Finale—"Keep America Singing" by the entire group.

Werner Elected Head of Pine Grove Sportsmen

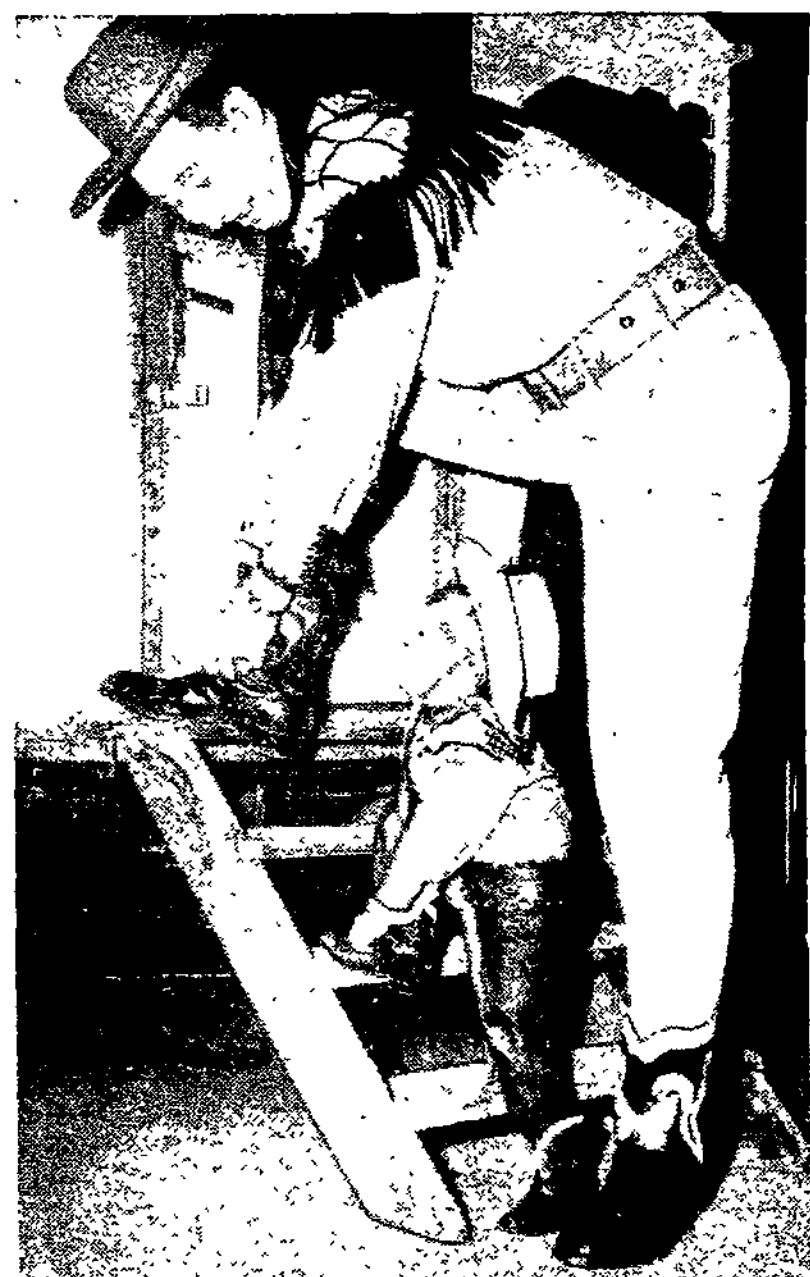

Bludgeon slayer Donald F. Warner, 22, was found guilty of second degree murder as charged Friday night by a jury of ten men and two women who had deliberated three hours in Mayville, N. Y. court.

Warner faces a prison term of 20 years to life. He is to be sentenced Feb. 17.

The defendant took the verdict with no visible signs of emotion. His mother did likewise.

On Sept. 12, 1957, Warner bludgeoned his pretty, pregnant wife, Winifred 18 in her mother's home at Frewsburg and left the girl dying in the bathtub. He was apprehended the next day at Tonawanda after phoning Jamestown police he was on his way in to surrender.

Defense Attorney Gease, in his tear-studded summation, told of the poor upbringing the boy had had in a broken home. He also explained that fear of contradictions from the testimony had led him to have the accused jeer swoon on the stand and then not ask him a single question. The prisoner sat silent in the witness box for approximately three minutes before Attorney Gease surprised the court with the state's case. "The defense rests."

Youngsville Grange Makes Plans for Farmers' Institute

Youngsville — At the regular meeting of Brokenstraw Grange, it was announced a Farmers' Institute series will be held in the Grange Hall Friday afternoons during the month of February.

At the first session, February 7, the speaker will be J. Collins McSparrin, master of Pennsylvania State Grange.

Final arrangements were also made for the Pomona Grange meeting in the Grange Hall February 6 when Mr. McSparrin will also be the speaker.

The lecturer's program included greetings brought by Mrs. Merle Schweitzer, Flora of Pennsylvania State Grange. Chief speaker was Merle Schweitzer, state deputy master of Warren county, who spoke on "Better Ritualism." Lecturer Leo Johnson also conducted a quiz in which each officer was called upon to answer the question, "What is the Duty of My Office?"

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Halfast and family attended the funeral of his father, Leslie Halfast, in Spartansburg.

Wednesday evening, the second meeting of the WSCS-sponsored study of the book of Mark will be held in the Methodist church at 7:30 p. m.

The second semester at YHS will begin January 22 and continue through May.

Eight and Forty held its January meeting at the home of Mrs. Florence Moutier, with 21 members present from Youngsville and Warren. The next meeting will be held in Warren on the third Wednesday in February.

Arizona's four big "Cs" are climate, cotton, cattle and copper.

Warner Found Guilty; Faces 20 Years to Life

Russell—As a result of elections at the January meeting of the Pine Grove Sportsmen's Association, Inc., Lawrence Werner will serve as president of the group in the coming year.

Clarence Akeley presided at the session, held in the clubhouse, when these additional officers were chosen. Vice president, William Ritchie, secretary, Harry Pearson, treasurer, William Hale; directors for three years, Dennis Kingsley, William Ritchie and Heath Ferrie, delegate to Warren County Council of Sportsmen, William Lyon.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to retiring president Akeley; Auditors Roy Briggs and Harold Hovis presented their report. It was voted to donate $10 to the Akeley Service Club for its project of erecting road signs throughout Pine Grove township. Members were reminded their next meeting will be held February 11, and lunch was served by Roy Briggs, Clarence Akeley, Jr., and Harold Hovis.

Bragging Jail Breaker Is Re-nabbed Shortly

The bad check artist who made a mysterious escape from Union City jail is back there today after bragging to a motorist how clever he was in getting out.

Robert L. Barton, 24, of RD 1, Union City, was apprehended in Salamanca, N. Y. where he had hitchhiked a ride. During the trip he bragged to the driver how smart he had been in leaving the lockup.

Barton said he opened the doors with a coat hanger but police are checking the theory that he may have been assisted in his escape attempt by a "floater" who walked out with him early Wednesday morning. The floater was later caught in Warren and returned, but refuses to tell how the barred door and steel door were opened.

Barton has about $500 worth of bouncing checks passed in Wattsburg, Union City, North East, Corry, Waterford, and other surrounding communities, according to police.

Johnstown Flood Catastrophe Recalled at Reservoir Meeting

For a spectre of what hangs over local heads if a Kinzua Dam is built, Save Our Valley Association Chairman Richard Morrison described the famed Johnstown flood of May 30, 1889 as he presided over the public protest meeting Friday night.

"The earth-fill dam on the Conemaugh was built in 1852 to supply water for the canal from Johnstown to Pittsburgh," said Morrison. "However, it was rendered obsolete two years later with the advent of steam railroads. After that very few persons, not even sight-seers bothered much with the dam about 400 feet high which was 14 miles above Johnstown. Its reservoir was three miles long, a mile and a half wide.

"So it fell into disrepair but no thought was entertained that a structure 275 feet thick would ever give way. But on May 29, 1889 engineers became panicked when, after three days of torrential rains the water level was rising five inches every hour.

"It was decided to drain the reservoir and send warnings to Johnstown, but before draining the lake it was thought advisable to inform the Mellons and Carnegies in Pittsburgh of their plans since they had expensive game fish stocked there.

"But the rains had downed the lines of communication from the damsite. So the men decided to open the drains anyway. By then it was too late. The rising tributaries had clogged them with debris and there was no way to release the building flood.

"The men started to hack a drainage ditch along the top of the dam about three feet wide and a foot deep. Meanwhile, an engineer rode a few miles away to a telegraph station and told the operator to warn Johnstown residents to flee. The dam was going to go. "He didn't stay long enough to find out that those wires were also down. First warning Johnstown had of the 40-foot wall of water rushing down the valley was when a conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad tied down the whistle and leaped for his life as the train careened into Johnstown.

"People poured into the streets but it was too late. Death toll was 2,200."

Deluxe Employees Asked to Report For Work Today

Pickets were removed Saturday morning from DeLuxe Metal Furniture plant, just prior to a general union meeting at which time it was decided that all men would report to work this morning while bargaining continues.

One hundred forty-five men had left the plant last Tuesday in a move which climaxed two months of union-management differences over the wage clause in a new contract. Contract expired January 10, the Friday previous.

The union claimed its members of UE Local 633 were "locked out." The company said it had no alternative except to ask employees to leave since the men were engaged in a "slowdown."

All men, on both day and night shifts, were asked to report for work at 7 a. m. today. Bargaining sessions resumed at 10 a. m. this morning and another general meeting of the workers is scheduled for 4 p. m. today to consider any new proposals arrived at by the Shop Committee and DeLuxe management.

The Shop Committee stressed that "the move to return to work for one day is intended to make possible the resumption of negotiations under conditions most favorable for reaching an agreement satisfactory to the Union and the company."

AT THE THEATRES

"The Tarnished Angels" now at Library Theater

It's a "new" Rock Hudson movie fans will see in Universal-International's "The Tarnished Angels," now on view at the Library Theatre.

Rock plays an inept reporter, a tumbling sort of fellow who still has ideals but he's inarticulate about them, and in most of the film appears wearing a zooty suit with a walk-upstairs-and-savetens-dollars look, a continual five o'clock shadow and uncombed hair.

Starred with Hudson in the new CinemaScope production are Robert Stack, Dorothy Malone and Jack Carson. Douglas Sirk directed and the story is based on William Faulkner's novel, "Fylon," one of the famous author's most plainspoken works. Producer of the picture was Albert Zug-

NOTICE

Sealed bids will be received by the Board of School Directors of the Township of Pine Grove, Warren County, Pennsylvania, by Julia C. Finzer, Secretary, at her residence in R. D. 1, Russell, Pennsylvania, until 7:00 P. M., EST, on Wednesday, January 22, 1958, and will be opened thereafter on the same day at 8:00 P. M., EST, at the Russell School Building, Russell, Pennsylvania, for the purchase of $84,000.00 par value general obligation coupon bonds of the School District of the Township of Pine Grove. The Bonds are of the denomination of $1,000.00 each, registrable as to principal only, dated February 1, 1958 and mature in the order of their number as follows:

Bonds numbers 1 to 7, inclusive, on February 1, 1959

Bonds numbers 8 to 14, inclusive, on February 1, 1960

Bonds numbers 15 to 21, inclusive, on February 1, 1961

Bonds numbers 22 to 28, inclusive, on February 1, 1962

Bonds numbers 29 to 35, inclusive, on February 1, 1963

Bonds numbers 36 to 42, inclusive, on February 1, 1964

Bonds numbers 71 to 77, inclusive, on February 1, 1969

Bonds numbers 78 to 84, inclusive, on February 1, 1970

with interest payable August 1st and February 1st in each year beginning August 1, 1958. The principal and interest are payable without deduction for any taxes (except gift, succession, or inheritance taxes) levied pursuant to any existing or future laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Bonds maturing on and after February 1, 1964 shall be callable, in reverse order of their numbers, in whole or in part at par on any interest payment date on and after August 1, 1961, upon 30 days prior written notice of the Board of School Directors of the Township of Pine Grove to the bond holder.

Each bid shall specify in a multiple of 1/2 a single rate of interest which the bonds are to bear and shall be accompanied by cash or a certified, cashier's or treasurer's check drawn to the order of the School District of Pine Grove Township in the sum of $1,800.00 as security for the performance of such bid.

Bids shall be addressed to Julia C. Finzer, Secretary, Russell, Pennsylvania, and shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope sufficiently labeled to indicate that it is a bid for these bonds.

The Bonds will be sold to the highest, responsible bidder subject to approval of the authorizing proceedings by the Department of Internal Affairs of Pennsylvania. No bid for less than par and accrued interest or for less than all of the bonds will be accepted.

The purchaser will receive without charge the opinion of Richard A. Leuthold, Esq., Attorney at Law, C. Finzer, Secretary, Russell, Pennsylvania, as to the validity of the bonds and the obligations of the Township of Pine Grove payable from ad valorem taxes levied on all taxable real property within the Township without limitation of rate or amount.

The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

By order of the Board of Directors of the School District of the Township of Pine Grove.

British Exploring Team Reaches Pole And Will Press on

Wellington, New Zealand (AP)—Dr. Vivian Fuchs and his British ground team reached the South Pole today and announced they firmly intended to press on to the other side of Antarctica.

Tough and dry despite their grueling 57-day trek across more than 900 miles of snow and ice, the British explorer said he would go on as planned to Scott Base, on McMurdo Sound, for the first overland crossing of the continent. But he added that he had no idea when he would reach the end of his journey.

Rear Adm. George Dufek, U. S. Chief of Operation Deep Freeze, and Sir Edmund Hillary, who reached the Pole overland 16 days earlier, were on hand to greet the 12 Britons who had brought their tractor train over 940 miles of terrain, no man had set foot on before.

Hillary and some other experts had advised Fuchs against making the 1,200-mile second leg of the trip because they believe bad weather is in the offing.

GRASS GREEN ABOVE KINZUA?

"As long as the moon rises, the grass is green, the river flows and the sun shines, this land is yours until you choose to sell it."

Those were the words used by President Washington's special envoy Timothy Pickering back in 1794 when he secured "forever" the Seneca's right to the approximate 21,000 acres of land of their reservation.

In Washington federal court Friday, Judge John J. Sirica refused to throw out the case of the Seneca Indians against the Army Engineers and ordered the case tried on its merits. It is due to come up before March 15. The Indians seek a permanent injunction against the dam because it would flood about one-third of their land.

Also getting dunked in the bargain, according to Richard Morrison who heads the Save Our Valley Association, would be about 300 permanent homes behind the dam in Pennsylvania and almost 400 hunting lodges. Morrison observed that the government would probably give him a fair price for his house and garage, "but you can't buy a home."

The issue is beginning to take definite shape now that a distinguished hydromatic engineer has authoritatively pointed out that the diversion channel to Lake Erie would not only supply a greater amount of flood protection but would also offer greater possibilities for water conservation. All this for $20,000,000 less than the Kinzua project which has been unofficially estimated at $150,000,000.

All persons interested were urged to continue a barrage of letters and telegrams to congress at a public meeting last Thursday. Official report from a private engineering firm which is evaluating the two proposals should be ready March 31.

BOYD SANDEN

Saturday ended a week of deaths of well known area residents, especially of men who had lived here throughout their lives and contributed greatly in service and good will to the community. Among these was Boyd M. Sanden, of North Warren, who passed away at the hospital early Saturday morning.

A charter member and one of its most active boosters the passing of Boyd Sanden cast a pall of gloom among the associates in the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Singing in America, which had been rehearsing for weeks in preparation for the highly successful Night of Harmony which was held Saturday night, and quite appropriately "dedicated to the memory of their deceased member."

Ever of a smiling and friendly nature, sincerely interested in people, Boyd was widely and popularly known.

In his business, social, fraternal and church contacts he was ever punctual and affable, contributing greatly to the success of any undertaking. Odd Fellows will remember him for his strict adherence to the lodge principles. He had served in many capacities including Noble Grand of Warren Lodge.

Since the Barbershop Chorus was organized ten years ago he has ever been a ringleader and inspiration to his fellow vocalists, being vice president at the time of his death.

One of the staunch supporters and founders of the North Warren Civil Club his activity there was in keeping with the tradition of good fellowship and kindly regard for others, contributing his talents to help make the organization a valuable influence.

North Warren and Warren will miss Boyd Sanden in full measure because of his sincere interest in both communities.

JOHN P. SAGE

The sudden death at his home in Tidioute during the night of John P. Sage, one of the county's oldest morticians and a historian of considerable note, will be mourned by a host of readers who enjoyed his frequent articles about the early days in some of the area's historic mushroom oil towns. Mr. Sage was one of Tidioute's most active citizens for over a half a century and in his passing the town loses one of its most enthusiastic boosters.

Here and There

George Seavy, well known Clarion resident and former county official, having served as commissioners' clerk, treasurer and county commissioner, is basking in the Florida sunshine according to a postcard received over the weekend, which says: "Dear Ed: The old weatherman is getting a little warmer now, the temperature being around 70. Am getting in a little fishing but not too much luck, hoping conditions will turn for the better with warmer weather. Hope things are ok with you. —Kind regards, George." Presenting a scene of the swimming pool and Cabanas at the Palm Beach Country Club, along with a couple bathing beauties, the card was mailed last Wednesday.

Senator James S. Berger, Reared in this city, has been named chairman in a special Joint State Government Commission committee to study Pennsylvania's occupational disease statutes and report its recommendations to the 1959 General Assembly. A Harrisburg dispatch to the Times-Mirror over the weekend says: During the last session, Senator Berger pointed out that the cost of occupational disease to the state had risen from $1,025,000 to more than $8,600,000 during the 1955-57 biennium and that the governor was requesting $15,000,000 for 1957-59. While the executive committee of JSG has made careful preliminary studies, Senator Berger's committee will specifically determine: The system of establishing eligibility of persons who receive payments; the checks and follow-up procedures employed to determine the continuing eligibility of such persons; the cost of operating the fund during the 1957-59 biennium for which a deficiency is forecast and other matters pertinent to the investigation.

Postal Panacea--Tux--Cagey Caller--Locro--Gin--Nabbed Knife--Paris Hat

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN AND JERRY BENNETT
NEA Staff Correspondents

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Most interesting birthday greeting received by Vice President Nixon was a post card six feet high in the shape of a .45 pistol. His 45th birthday, get it? It was sent by a bunch of guys in a local rooming house.

When the V.P. saw that it took $3.40 worth of stamps he said, "This is the kind of thing which will take the Post Office out of the red."

OKLAHOMA SEN. Mike Monroney is about the gayest bird in town this winter. He wears a red tuxedo coat. Mike's story is that his wife bought it for him. Her story is that she bought it as a gag, but that Mike likes it so well he won't wear anything else to black tie gatherings.

FRIEND OF OURS has been trying to call a government official for the past two weeks but always found him in conference and always left his number for the official to call him back. Finally our friend exploded to the official's secretary with the following conversation taking place: Friend: Why doesn't Mr. ever return my call? Secretary: "He has, but you're never in."

GLAMOROUS BROADWAY actress Doris West Maybough, who has just returned from South America, was shocked at an Argentine embassy party to discover that the chief had never heard of Locro. She explained that it is currently the favorite dish at Buenos Aires parties and is a delicious stew containing beef, sweet potatoes, chopped onions and hot green peppers. The chef was so impressed that he asked Doris for the complete recipe and made her promise to sample the first dish of Locro to see if it tastes right.

DRINK TRENDS: Ed Trilling, one of the town's leading caterers, reports a definite swing away from Martinis. Gin on the rocks is what they've started drinking instead. With Congress back in town the consumption of bourbon goes up, Ed finds.

JIM BOTTOMLEY of the British embassy is now convinced that he has honest friends, although for a two-week period recently he had gnawing doubts about it.

After a party at his house a while back a quick count of the silverware revealed that a knife was missing.

He had written to the firm in Britain which could replace it when a friend met him at a cocktail party, extracted the missing knife from his inside coat pocket and handed it to Jim, explaining: "I put it in my pocket at your house because my hands were full when I went through the buffet. I forgot about it until tonight. So, it's lucky you're here."

CORRECTION: We recently reported that Assistant White House Press Secretary Ann Wheaton did not buy a new hat in Paris.

Actually Ann bought a dazzling red one an hour before flying back to Washington but decided to keep it a secret so she could surprise friends at a recent party given by Vice President Nixon. Mrs. Nixon liked the hat so much that she plans to order one just like it.

a friendly way your dog is under the impression your mailman is a hors d'oeuvre. The letter will make useful suggestions. —Next, if the mailman's arrival is still the big moment in your dog's feeding schedule, you get a letter saying from now on your mail may be picked up at the post office. A Post Office spokesman said the tone of the first letter will be polite and helpful. The second will be somewhat cooler. He said the department is sending postmasters some sample letters but they may use their discretion about what to say to meet "local circumstances." Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said the department decided on its new program only "after months of study of this dog-bite problem and continued annoyance to our carriers by some dogs." The spokesman said the department estimated in 1956 mailmen suffer about 6,000 dog bites a year. That's about one for every 20 mailmen. "We believe that figure is unchanged," he said.

In connection with Saturday evening's Barbershop Chorus "Night of Harmony" it has already been announced that everyone is invited to next year's program which will be held January 24, 1959, and will feature "The Schmitt Brothers," 1951 International Champions of Two Rivers, Wisc. It has been learned they will also appear at Chautauqua on the Seneca Land Serenade to open the Institute season. The Confederates were outstanding performers Saturday evening, with never a dull moment. The Babbling Brooks were excellent. From the first to the last quartet the audience was pleased and delighted. In spite of the cold and snow it was the type of an evening that will long be remembered by everyone fortunate enough to have been in the capacity audience. It was appropriate, indeed, that the program be dedicated to the memory of Boyd M. Sanden, vice president and charter member, whose death occurred at the hospital Saturday morning following a brief illness.

Operation Preparation

Edgar B. Pendleton, left, and John Mallery, Warren county chairman and co-chairman, represented the local American Cancer Society unit at the Preparatory Workshop conducted at the Penn-Alto Hotel in Altoona.

There were 33 counties represented and Chairman Pendleton reports three major fields of endeavor were covered: The educational aspect, progress in research, and Crusade planning, which, as always, will have its kick-off in April.

Mr. Pendleton succeeds James Wright as chairman for Warren county's coming Cancer Crusade, while Mr. Mallery, county superintendent of schools, will work as co-chairman, and Dwayne DelChambre, assistant manager of Bell Telephone Company, will serve as Warren borough chairman.

Plans are already in the making for a successful Crusade in Warren county, with details being worked out and announced soon.

Will Be February Bride

Dr. and Mrs. James E. Richards, 12 Brook street, announce the coming marriage of their daughter, JoAnne, to Dominic J. Mallare, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mallare, Jamestown, N. Y.

Miss Richards, graduate of Warren High School, attended Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia and is a graduate of Jamestown Business College. She is presently employed by Loranger Manufacturing Corp.

Mr. Mallare, graduate of Jamestown High School, served four years with the U. S. Air Force and is attending Erie County Tech in Buffalo.

The wedding will take place February 15.

INTERESTING VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chester have recently returned from a trip to Washington, D. C., and nearby Alexandria, Va., where their daughter, Miss Joan Chester, is a nurse in Alexandria Hospital.

Also during their stay, the Chesters and their daughter were guests of Mrs. Marjory Hendricks for a dinner at Normandy Farm, French provincial dining place where King Saud of Saudi Arabia gave a fabulous fete while he was in America.

Mr. Chester and Mrs. Hendricks were associated in Red Cross work overseas in World War II. Mr. Chester is presently regional director of the American Overseas Association of former Red Cross workers having overseas service.

Eight and Forty Has Youngsville Meeting

The January meeting of Warren County Salon 405, Eight and Forty, was held at the home of Le Petit Chapeau Florence Mourer in Youngsville, with 22 members answering roll call. It was regretted there were no members present from Sugar Grove and but one from Sheffield.

The prescribed ritual was used for opening and closing ceremonies, with Florence Mourer, Lena Mourer, Leona Albough and Edith Ahlquist taking part. Mary Johnson and Marjorie Mourer presented their usual well-written reports.

The membership quota for 1958 was discussed, and names of several candidates proposed. These will be balloted on at the next meeting, 8:00 p. m., February 19 at the American Legion Home in Warren. It was suggested all Eight and Forty members, their families and friends attend the 6th annual Automobile Show sponsored by Volture 941, Forty at Eight, which is again being held at Beatty School cafeteria Friday evening, January 24, and all day and evening Saturday, January 25.

After a delightful lunch served by the Youngsville group, everyone enjoyed a tour of Mrs. Mourer's new home, singing audibly and enthusiastically. The special award for this month went to Mrs. Teresa Bauer.

VFW AUXILIARY

Sheffield—Fifteen members attended the January meeting of VFW Auxiliary, held at the home of Mrs. Joseph O'Connor, with the president, Mrs. Fred Rounds, in charge.

Mrs. Frank Blum of Oil City, president of the Auxiliary 19th District, was present for her annual visitation and inspection of the local unit. Addressing the club, she explained the many programs carried on by the district, which is planning to enlarge its hospital program and asks support of all Auxiliaries. She also stressed that more members attend District and Council meetings. Mrs. Black was accompanied by Mrs. Ed Black, president of Oil City Auxiliary.

To conclude, refreshments were served by Mrs. George Morley and Mrs. Roy Burgason.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

SMALL TRUMP IS BIG CARD

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Ace Gutowsky of Oklahoma City former Oklahoma All-American and Detroit Lion star, is also quite a bridge player.

In today's hand Ace used the six of trumps to deliver a key block against a vulnerable game.

North's jump to three spades was a rock bottom minimum but he felt that two spades was inadequate and any other bid would get his side to game anyway. Actually three no-trump makes because of the spade break but there was no way that North could see this and certainly if game were to be bid four spades looked like the best spot.

West opened the king of hearts and continued the suit after Ace played the nine. Since dummy's queen of hearts was high at trick three it behooved Ace to trump in. Most players would ruff automatically with the four spot but Ace noted that the six might be a very important card if used right then and there.

Hence he did ruff with the six spot and now declarer had no way to limp home with the contract. If he failed to overruff he was down automatically so he had to use his jack. Now the king-ten in the West hand became a sure trump trick.

If Ace had ruffed with the four declarer would have been able to overruff with the five and then finesse successfully against West's king.

TODAY'S QUESTION

The bidding continues with five diamonds by West and passes by North and East. What do you, South, do now?

Answer Tomorrow

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hice, Russell, wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Ella, to Frederick Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wright, 107 South Carver street, Warren. The wedding will be an event of the near future. (Photo by Borg.)

WSGS GROUP HAS DESSERT-LUNCHEON

Russell—WSGS members enjoyed a one o'clock dessert-luncheon served by Mrs. Ralph Way and Mrs. Paul Wood for their regular meeting, 17 persons answering roll call with Bible verses. Mrs. Charles Pearson presided, Mrs. Paul Wood gave devotions; for the program, Mrs. Benton Bairstow reviewed the first half of "The Small Woman."

An invitation was received from Thursday Evening Circle to hear Rose Mary Wilcox, Jamestown, at 8:00 p. m. January 22 in the church; announcement was made of the World Day of Prayer service to be held in the church at 2:00 p. m. February 21, with neighboring groups invited. Mrs. Ralph Baker will be in charge of the program, with Mrs. Claude Perigo, Mrs. Benton Bairstow and Mrs. Paul Wood in charge of refreshments.

Members voted to order copies of the magazine "Mature Years" for shut-ins and others desiring to purchase them. Next meeting of the group will be held February 19.

PARENT-TEACHER UNIT

Dr. J. T. Valone was guest speaker for the January meeting of St. Joseph's Parent-Teacher Unit, showing a very helpful film on rheumatic fever.

Plans were discussed for the Spring Festival, to be presented by the children under the direction of Mrs. James Potter; also for the February fund-raising project, a bake sale. Members also voted to contribute their unit's share toward the annual Scholarship Fund benefit party to be held in early February under the sponsorship of Warren Education Association and Community PTA Council.

At the conclusion of the program and meeting, refreshments were served by Mary Lucia and her committee.

LITTLE BACH SOCIETY

Mrs. Charles Eaton was hostess when members of Little Bach Society held their first meeting of the new year. The topic being The Romantic Period, many beautiful selections made the following program very enjoyable:

Linda Cobb, Danse Hongroise; Doris Anderson, Norquese Melody; Kristy Hanson, Arietta; Susan Lucke, Norse Song; Patsy Lindquist, Prelude in C Minor; Sue Lutz, Valse Sentimental; Nancy Mathis, Three Waltzes; Diane Curtis, Fairies in the Moonlight; Kriston Ericsson, An Old Romance; Linda Werner, The Reap-er's Song; Iza Matulis, The Three Ecossaises.

DICKSON CLASS

Dickson Class members of First Presbyterian church held their regular meeting at the home of Helen Potter, 313 Prospect street, with devotions given by Margaret Peed. Following a panel discussion conducted by Margaret Spencer, Mary Jane Hubbard, Millicent Harman and Arlene Whitehill, refreshments were served by Dorothy Burger, Jane Greenlund, and Mary Carlson.

The Mature Parent

Need for Tenderness May Be Behind Child's 'Malevolence'

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

AFTER six weeks of watching his mother care for his new baby sister, 4-year-old Jack developed a disturbing suspicion. He got the idea that she had acquired a second child out of dissatisfaction with him. This suspicion made him very greedy for her admiration.

One day when she was nursing the baby, the sight of their closeness became intolerable. Desperate for attention, Jack climbed up on the living room sofa, straddled its back and began bouncing up and down on it, yelling, "Look at me! I'm a cowboy! Hey, look..." His mother looked—but delivered no admiration. She said, "Get down from there! Do you want to wreck all the furniture in the house?"

If you'd been watching Jack closely, you'd have seen the change come over him. The look of excited hopefulness on his face was replaced by one of sly and defiant malevolence. Ignoring his mother, he went on bouncing and yelling more vigorously than before.

She had to leave the baby to pry him, kicking and furious, from the sofa.

The late Dr. Henry Stack Sullivan was one of our great teachers of psychiatry. Of the change that came over Jack, he wrote, "The child learns that it is highly disadvantageous to show any need for tenderness in which case he shows something else—the basic malevolent attitude. On that basis there come about the remarkable developments we see later in life when the child makes it practically impossible to feel tenderly toward him."

THIS sudden appearance of malevolence in little children frightens us. So it can be very helpful to understand it to be actually, despair of our tenderness and admiration.

Then we can stop thinking, "Oh, what self-willed stubbornness this child is getting to be!" We can correct our irritable response and deliver the desperately needed admiration. With genuine tenderness, we can say, "I didn't understand you were being a cowboy. But that sofa horse of yours doesn't really gallop. Why don't you make a horse out of the broomstick in the kitchen?"

As Dr. Sullivan suggests, it is uneconomical to allow Jack's despair of our admiration to develop.

Beatty School News

Beatty assembly Friday was a movie, "Skid Row", put on by the hygiene department. Homeroom programs were as follows: Seventh Grade, Hobbies; Eighth Grade, Courtesy in School; Ninth Grade, Hobbies.

A new club is being started for Beatty boys. It is a swimming club for beginners, with Mr. Fales as sponsor.

The Honor Society is helping the Guidance department revise the Beatty Handbook. Committees were formed at the last meeting each to revise the section of which it has been given charge.

Three students from Edinboro will do their practice teaching in Beatty next semester. Andrew Randas, James Cowan, and James Beck will be working with Beatty history teachers, Mr. Connors, Mr. Hinderliter and Mr. Oelslager.

The basketball game between Beatty and Jefferson Junior High that was canceled January 14 because of highway conditions, has been rescheduled at 2:00 p. m. January 21 in Beatty gym. On Thursday, Beatty played Washington Junior High in Jamestown, 20 students, cheerleaders and the team making the trip. Friday, Beatty played Bradford Junior High at that place. No bus was taken for the trip, since the game was part of a school assembly.

The Trick Is Framing Your Eyes

Nature is often careless in handing out beauty. She may give a girl classic features but eyebrows that are entirely wrong for her face. This isn't a serious beauty problem but it is one that needs correction. This girl has decided (left) that her brows grow too low and too close to her eyes, making her forehead look higher than it really is. She uses a scissors-handled tweezers to pluck her brows from underneath (center) and thus give them the arched look that she wants. Then she adds a few strokes with an eyebrow pencil (right) and combs her hair into bangs. The result is a far prettier face, one with a less severe look. Best way to find your right brow line is to follow bone structure just above the eye.

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

WHEN your eyes are lovely, other beauty flaws, more often than not, go unnoticed.

Think about it yourself. When you see a woman with particularly beautiful eyes, isn't that what you recall most clearly about her?

Although, in the long run, eye beauty depends largely upon good health, thanks to modern beauty aids we can enhance the appearance of our eyes with a minimum of effort.

Your eyes should be a picture, framed by brows, lids and lashes, and it's up to you to make certain that the frame shows the picture at its best.

Your lashes will grow long and curly if you apply oil to them each night before going to bed. And for street and evening wear, mascara, carefully applied, will add to their beauty.

Your brows are the most important part of the frame. We're all familiar with the tricks of hair styling and cosmetics to change the shape of the face and minimize beauty flaws, but few of us realize how much reshaping of the eyebrows can do for us.

If you have a too high forehead, you can make it seem lower by lightening the arch of your brow to close in the distance between the hairline and the top of your eyebrows. For a too low forehead, keep the brow on a straight line, giving the forehead as much space as possible.

Length can be added to a round face by arching the brows in the center. And a narrow face can be made to seem wider by tapering the brows and then using an eyebrow pencil to lengthen the line.

Many of us avoid corrective eyebrow shaping because we find tweezing painful. But there is on the market a new precision tweezer whose scissor handles, the maker says, create such leverage as to give you a rock-firm grip on each hair. The handles are angled to allow full vision, for your hand is toward the side of your face and not between the eyes and mirror. This tweezer is available, too, with a diagonal tip to allow you to tweeze while wearing your glasses.

To make tweezing painless, wring out a wash cloth in warm water and press it to the brows for a few minutes. Then work a tiny bit of light cream into the brows. Pat away the excess with tissue, then tweeze. You'll do it faster, and it won't hurt at all.

Try to take the time necessary to care for your brows and lashes so that the beauty of your eyes will be set in the frame it deserves.

High School Notes

The Spot will not be open this evening.

A representative from Case Institute of Technology located in Cleveland, Ohio, will be here Wednesday, January 29, to meet and speak with any Junior and Senior boy desiring to learn more about this fine engineering school. At present several Warren High graduates are attending this school.

They are Jack Beck, William Massa, Richard Reynolds, Charles Saden, and Dave Simko. Any Junior or Senior boy desiring to meet with this representative is asked to register his name with the Guidance Office.

Members of the Future Teachers of America assembly committee will meet with Grace Murano Tuesday after school in Room 214.

The Future Homemakers of America skating party will be this evening at 6:30. Following the party the girls will go to Gail Wyman's home on 4 Myrtle street for a short business meeting and refreshments.

The Social Committee and the Special Committee for cocoa of the Student Council will meet Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock in Room 209. Students interested in Archery are asked to report to Room 206 after school Tuesday.

COMMITTEE SESSION

A meeting of the Library Week committee will be held at 8:00 p. m. Wednesday in the Jefferson Room of Warren Public Library.

Poor Old Sam's Treated Like a Dog and He Loves It

I DIDN'T realize what an underprivileged dog our Sam is until I picked up a recent issue of the Saturday Evening Post and read an article about a New York shop that caters to canines. This shop not only offers but SELLS such "cute" items as custom-made nylon pajamas, mink coats, topcoats, raincoats and boots, bathrobes, smoking jackets, black lace collars, etc.

Poor old Sam has worn the same fur coat ever since he was born. It's not mink, either. It's plain black Labrador retriever. But on him, it looks good. And though it is eight years old, it still fits fine. He wears it winter and summer, rain or shine, night and day, and he hasn't complained yet about not having a thing to wear.

Sam doesn't have a Louis XV bed, either, like one of the dogs mentioned in the Post article. For years he has slept on a cotton rug he carefully "makes" each night for himself by walking around it and pushing it up in humps to make it fit his body perfectly.

JUST PLAIN SAM

THERE'S no ornament on Sam's collar but a couple of tags, one saying that he has a city license, the other that he has had his rabies shots.

He's never been taken to a dog beauty shop for a manicure, shampoo and "set." But it hasn't given him an inferiority complex, because he holds his head high and steps along with all the self-confidence in the world.

He's never had a baby sitter, either, like the dogs I read about in the article. When the family goes out, Sam just assumes he is supposed to guard the house, and the responsibility hasn't seemed to be too heavy for him.

Sam seems so happy, getting one good square meal a day and a treat of dog candy for fetching the morning and evening papers, that I'm mighty thankful, smart as he is, that he can't read.

I'd hate to have him know about those New York dogs who wear mink and nylon and lace. It might give him an awful inferiority complex.

Van Zandt Expects To Make Decision Within the Month

By JOHN KOENIG, JR.

AP Special Washington Service

Washington, (AP) — Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.) said today he expects to decide within a month whether he will seek the Senate seat to be vacated by Sen. Edward Martin (R-Pa.), who is retiring.

But that decision will rest, Van Zandt told a newsman, on whether Pennsylvania Republican leaders agree on him as their candidate.

"If they think I have what it takes," he said, "I will be only too glad to make a formal announcement of candidacy."

Van Zandt said he has had only informal talks with state GOP leaders so far. As for actively seeking the nomination, he said, he is too busy with committee work in Congress.

The Altoona, Pa., congressman is a member of the House Armed Services Committee and the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy.

Van Zandt described himself as having "one foot in the arena and one foot out" as far as the sweepstakes go for the Republican nomination for senator.

The date for circulating nominating petitions is Feb. 25. March 17 is the deadline for filing.

Van Zandt said one matter of concern would be who is gubernatorial running mate would be should he seek the senatorial post. Republican sentiment still has not consolidated around any one candidate for governor.

A senator and governor will be elected at the same time next November since Martin's Senate term expires at the end of the year and Gov. George M. Leader under the state constitution cannot succeed himself.

Availability of funds also would be a matter to consider, Van Zandt said, since he expects this to be "a most active campaign."

"A television appearance may cost $150,000," he said. "I have no money like that."

But weighing particularly heavy with him, Van Zandt said, is his responsibility to the people of his congressional district.

Planning and Zoning Session Open to Public

At least 50 county, borough and township officials have indicated they will be in attendance next Monday at 7:30 when county commissioners sponsor a planning and zoning discussion meeting in the court house. The general public is invited to attend.

Main interest in the meeting will center on Warren T. itzmenn of the State Department of Commerce, who is to explain planning and zoning on county, borough and township levels.

Henry Fuelhart or Jack Schall will explain the current county mapping program, using maps of Youngville Borough and Pine Grove Township as examples. Jack Nicholson, chief county assessor, and Robert Camp, representative of the appraisal firm of Clemmshaw & Co. of Cleveland, will detail the county reappraisal program. The aims of Warren County Industrial Development Association will also be presented.

LIONS' MEETING

Program feature for this week's luncheon-meeting of Lions Club will be the presence of the club's founders and every member is asked to make a special effort to be on hand.

TO PAY RESPECTS

Members of Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association are asked to meet at 7 p. m. tonight in Templeton's Funeral Home to pay respects to Boyd Senden. Units are asked to attend in a body.

GROTTO SUPPER

Members of Farrah Grotto and their ladies will gather in their social rooms at 5:30 p. m. Wednesday for a pancake supper, a minimum donation to be asked for expenses. The regular meeting of Grotto tonight will consider a number of special events of the coming months.

BIG PRODUCER

Latest statistics from Pennsylvania Holstein-Friesian Herd Improvement Registry indicates that Clintonia Kelco Ann, owned by F. L. Dodd & Sons of Corry, produced a total of 14,337 pounds of milk and 699 pounds of butterfat when milked twice daily for 332 days as a four-year-old.

SCHOOL BUS REMINDER

Sgt. Donald Holmes of the local trooper barracks reminds bus drivers and owners that state-accerted lights must be installed on all vehicles carrying school children before they can be approved for the inspection period. The approved lights, said the sergeant, are Grote, number 257-50; McDermott, numbers SCB-75-12B and SCB-75-6-B; Arrow, number 775H. The old lights cannot be altered. New inspection period is February-March-April. The new lights have been ordered by accessory stores.

SOME SNOW

The accumulation of snow early Saturday was five and one-half inches, according to Weather Observer Gil Reier who watched it come down hard late Friday afternoon and evening. Another .9 of an inch was added by Sunday morning, which also had the coldest temperatures of the weekend when a snappy 4 degrees was reported at 7 a. m. Low this morning was 16 degrees. Park Superintendent Reier reports further that the ice at Beaty rink is somewhat rough because the men have been unable to spray for four nights because of snowfall, and one night because of frost.
